Hi Marilyn,

Would you please thank the musicians for the performance yesterday? I'm hoping that it might convince certain members of the church to invite you all back again. I did try and have a word with Him Upstairs! about the weather but he was obviously asleep! There were people in the church listening, and in the Hamilton room where they opened the windows to hear you. In the house nearest the church he even turned the football off to hear you play! So it was far from a wasted effort.

You've got a great team Marilyn. Well done.

My very best wishes,

Graham
